

Contents

Foreword by Sandra Liebenberg .....	v
Acknowledgements .....	vii
Notes on Contributors .....	xi
1. Introduction: Situating the Right to Continuous Improvement of Living Conditions and Considering its Interpretations and Applications .....	1
Jessie Hohmann and Beth Goldblatt
2. Sources for a Nascent Interpretation of the Right to Continuous Improvement of Living Conditions: The Travaux Préparatoires and the Work of the CESCR .....	19
Jessie Hohmann
3. Cooperating to Continuously Improve .....	41
Meghan Campbell
4. The Right to Continuous Improvement of Living Conditions as a Response to Poverty .....	65
Luke D Graham
5. Is Financial Inclusion a Proxy for Continuously Improving Living Conditions? .....	87
Juan Pablo Bohoslavsky and Francisco Cantamutto
6. The Right to the Continuous Improvement of Living Conditions and Progressive Realisation: The Case of the Right to Social Security in Canada .....	109
Lucie Lamarche
7. Understanding Forgotten Rights .....	131
Naomi Lott
8. The Right to Continuous Improvement of Living Conditions and Human Rights of Future Generations – A Circle Impossible to Square? .....	147
Sigrun I Skogly
9. New Synergies and Possibilities in the Inter-American Court of Human Rights: From Dignified Life to the Right to Continuous Improvement of Living Conditions .....	165
Isaac de Paz González

x Contents

10. (Dis)Continuous Improvement: Canada, Indigenous Peoples, Lobster and Child Welfare .....	187
Jeffery Hewitt
11. The Work of Living: Social Reproduction and the Right to the Continuous Improvement of Living Conditions .....	205
Beth Goldblatt
12. Measure for Measure: The Challenges of Measuring Continuous Improvement and Lessons from the Sustainable Development Goals .....	225
Sandra Fredman
13. Entangled Rights and Reproductive Temporality: Legal Form, Continuous Improvement of Living Conditions, and Social Reproduction .....	247
Ruth Fletcher
Index .....	267