

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
List of Contributors	xi
1. From ‘Men of Files’ to ‘Men of the Senses’: A Brief Characterisation of Eugen Ehrlich’s Sociology of Law.....	1
Marc Hertogh
Part I: Eugen Ehrlich: Life, Work and Context	19
2. Governing in the Vernacular: Eugen Ehrlich and Late Habsburg Ethnography.....	21
Monica Eppinger
3. Venus in Czernowitz: Sacher-Masoch, Ehrlich and the Fin-de-siècle Crisis of Legal Reason.....	49
Assaf Likhovski
Part II: Ehrlich’s Sociology of Law	73
4. Ehrlich at the Edge of Empire: Centres and Peripheries in Legal Studies.....	75
Roger Cotterrell
5. Eugen Ehrlich’s Linking of Sociology and Jurisprudence and the Reception of his Work in Japan.....	95
Stefan Vogl
Part III: Ehrlich and his Contemporaries	125
6. Facts and Norms: The Unfinished Debate between Eugen Ehrlich and Hans Kelsen.....	127
Bart van Klink
7. Pounding on Ehrlich. Again?.....	157
Salif Nimaga
8. The Social Life of Living Law in Indonesia	177
Franz and Keebet von Benda-Beckmann

Part IV: Ehrlich and Contemporary Socio-legal Studies	199
9. Naturalism and Agency in the Living Law	201
Jeremy Webber
10. World Society, Nation State and Living Law in the Twenty-first Century.....	223
Klaus A Ziegert
11. Ehrlich's Legacies: Back to the Future in the Sociology of Law?.....	237
David Nelken
 Index	 273